

Stiles, McHugh Top Off 39-Story NEMA Apartment Tower In Downtown Miami

September 12, 2023 / 0 Comments /

Stiles Construction [<https://www.stiles.com/construction/>] and McHugh Construction have topped off NEMA Miami, a 39-story luxury apartment tower underway at 2900 Biscayne Blvd. in downtown Miami.

Crescent Heights is developing the project, which will comprise 588 apartments in studio, one-, two-and three-bedroom layouts, as well as ground-floor retail space, including a 42,030-square-foot Whole Foods Market store. Additionally, the development will feature a 748-spot parking garage, with 195 spots reserved for Whole Foods patrons.

Designed by Arquitectonica, NEMA Miami's amenities will include indoor and outdoor lounges, a swimming pool, sauna and steam rooms, event space and catering kitchen, private bar lounge and a fitness center. Rockwell Group is providing interior design services. The first move-ins are scheduled for next summer.

Get the latest industry news and information from CRE-sources delivered right to your email inbox!

And we promise...no more than one email each morning.

CLICK HERE TO SUBSCRIBE TODAY!
[<http://forms.feedblitz.com/6cc>]

Share this entry

You might also like

 One Plantation Apartments And Retail Center Awarded NAIOP Project Of The Year	 One Of The Last Remaining Development Sites In Edgewater Sells For Record Breaking Price
---	--

