Stiles Announces New Lease At Shops At One Plantation, Adds Prime K BBQ

January 24, 2024 /

Enhancing the diverse mix of restaurant options in the Plantation area, Stiles

Retail Group (SRG) [https://www.stiles.com/development-retail/] has signed a lease with Korean-inspired tabletop BBQ restaurant Prime K BBQ at Shops at One Plantation [https://www.stiles.com/shops-at-one-plantation/].

Vice President Michael Carpenter [https://www.stiles.com/mike-carpenter/] handled the leasing for SRG, a division of the full-service real estate development firm, Stiles [https://www.stiles.com/].

Prime K BBQ is anticipated to open in Fall 2024.

Prime K BBQ offers an interactive and immersive dining experience that centers around the art of Korean tabletop barbecue, where guests will have the opportunity to become their own grill masters. Each table will be equipped with state-of-the-art grilling stations, allowing diners to cook their choice of premium meats and vegetables to perfection right at their table.

"We are incredibly excited to bring our Korean BBQ-twist to our new home of Plantation," said restaurant owner Michelle Cho. "Our team is dedicated to creating nothing short of an elevated dining experience that combines outstanding cuisine and an inviting atmosphere. We look forward to becoming a cherished part of the Plantation community."

In addition to the tabletop barbecue experience, the restaurant will boast an extensive bar menu featuring a wide selection of craft cocktails, wines, and spirits. Guests can expect a thoughtfully curated beverage menu that complements the flavors of the Korean barbecue offerings.

The restaurant is being opened by the J&M Restaurant Group, which recently relocated to South Florida from Maryland. J&M has been involved in the restaurant business for over a decade with successful establishments in New York and the Maryland/DC area.
